This resource has built on an existing body of knowledge and resources developed by divisions of general practice to support the recruitment and orientation of a nurse into general practice. A number of divisions provided resources and information to inform the project. Of particular significance were the resources developed by:

- GP Access (formerly Hunter Urban Division of General Practice)
- Illawarra Division of General Practice
- Melbourne Division of General Practice
- Riverina Division of General Practice and Primary Health.

Contributions were also received from the following state based organisations and divisions of general practice:

- General Practice NSW (formerly Alliance of NSW Divisions)
- Cairns Division of General Practice
- Central Queensland Rural Division of General Practice
- Dandenong Casey General Practice Association (formerly Dandenong District Division of General Practice)
- Dubbo Plains Division of General Practice
- Fremantle Regional GP Network
- General Practice Victoria (formerly General Practice Divisions Victoria)
- Gold Coast Division of General Practice
- GP Down South
- GP North Division of General Practice
- Murrumbidgee Division of General Practice
- General Practice Queensland (formerly Queensland Divisions of General Practice)
- South East Alliance of General Practice
- South Eastern Sydney Division of General Practice
- WA General Practice Network.

The following documents were also used extensively to guide the development of this resource:

- Australian Nursing Federation. Competency standards for nurses in general practice, 2004.
- Royal College of Nursing, Australia. Nursing in General Practice – a guide for the general practice team, 2005.
- Australian General Practice Network. Demonstration Divisions National Resource Kit, 2005.
